High School Seniors...

Apply for a Cal Grant - it could be your ticket to success!

Remember to submit your FAFSA and Cal Grant GPA Verification Form between January 1 - March 2, 2010
(no earlier and no later unless otherwise directed by a financial aid office)

Attend a FREE Cash for College Workshop in January and February and you could cash in on an extra $1,000 scholarship!

To find a 2010 workshop, visit: www.calgrants.org

Steps to be Prepared:

- Create a dedicated and appropriate email account just for college applications, scholarships and financial aid.
- Apply to colleges/universities (check websites because deadlines vary... UC & CSU deadline is Nov 30).
- Check college/university websites for special financial aid deadlines and forms (i.e. Collegeboard's CSS Profile)
- Sign-up for an online PIN # so you can complete and sign your FAFSA on the Web. The student and his/her parent both need a PIN... get one at: www.pin.ed.gov
- Submit a Cal Grant GPA Verification Form (or the Release Form) to your counselor ASAP. Get the form from your counselor, or print one from the California Student Aid Commission website: www.csac.ca.gov
- Parents (and students if you worked in 2009)... get your 2009 federal income taxes completed as early as possible! To locate a FREE Tax Preparation Center in your neighborhood call 1-800-358-8832 or visit: www.earnit!keepitsaveit.org (EarnIt!KeepIt!SaveIt! is a program of the United Way of the Bay Area. Information updated January 2010)
- Use the FAFSA4caster at www.fafsa4caster.ed.gov to find out your estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC is the $ amount the federal processor calculates the family could contribute towards the total cost of attendance at most U.S. colleges).
